

2009 FUSE

Experience the enjoyment of riding waves or wind swell right out of the box! Slingshot board designer John Doyle has taken his 25 years of board shaping experience to create the ultimate directional kiteboard that makes its home on waves or wind swell. Now as part of the Crossover Collection the Fuse comes equipped with FRT* making the liveliness and overall feel of the Fuse even better!

Benefits:

The unique shape and directional rocker line of the Fuse make it easier than ever for anyone familiar with riding a twin tip to enjoy waves without the learning curve.
